Does having CLion open on another MacBook or on your regular computer speed up the JetBrains website and the download section of the JetBrains company website? If this is the case, maybe deleting your CLion app store cached install and removing the previous version will do the trick. If this step does not help, remove all the JetBrains apps from your Mac. Reinstall them (app store version) and make sure you are running the OS version of the app that you downloaded from. Most of the JetBrains apps will probably want to access the API data store, so make sure you have some free space available. If you don't have a lot of free space, you might want to consider using one of the paid cloud hosting options such as Google Cloud etc. As far as I know, the private JetBrains network is not accessible to the public and may
