"Green Man" review: An enlightened, romantic, and wickedly smart film Patty Jenkins' "Wonder Woman" was an impressive surprise hit, practically a new genre unto itself, and audiences were ready to fill the hole in their hearts left by Zack Snyder's letdown "Batman v Superman." However, the subsequent two installments in the DCEU have failed to live up to the expectations those films created. Luckily, 2017 is looking like the year that "Wonder Woman 2" will finally live up to the hype, as Jenkins takes over directing duties and brings to life yet another wild plot with "Wonder Woman 1984." Already, the picture is shaping up to be a
