A man and his boyfriend were charged with murder on Tuesday after a 5-month-old baby died from an infection, health officials said. They said the infant died after being left in a hot car on March 31 and the parents are being held on $500,000 bond. The couple, who have not been publicly identified, were charged with felony murder and first-degree murder. They are scheduled to be arraigned in the Lane County Circuit Court on April 17. The same day, a similar incident happened in the 3600 block of 112th Avenue in Woodland. One woman, also left in a vehicle, was found dead inside the car, health officials said. She was an adult woman and her cause of death was not immediately known. The car was found parked in a driveway with the woman inside, but no signs of trauma, health officials said.
