I can't stand the feeling of being seperated from what I download. I know its how the internet is designed, but I don't like it. I would like to upload my torrent so everyone has access to the files. When I try to do this with another program, it gives me a message saying: "There was a network error." So this is how I have done it. From your browser, go to www.Kodi.tv and download the appropriate software. The program I use is called "Kodi". Once you have done this, open up that file and install it. Make sure you have the "beta" program. From here, you will have to find your torrent. I will be using my Android device to find my torrent. Please follow these steps. 1. Go to settings on your phone2. Go to "data" and tap on your data connection3. Tap on "tracker"4. It will tell you which tracker your tracker is associated with. If you want more info on finding your tracker, here are the steps I used to find my tracker: 1. Open up your browser and go to <http://trackerlist.co.uk>. 2. Scroll down to the bottom and click on the down load button. 3. Find your tracker. Every tracker has it's own ip address. If you do not find your tracker, click on the menu on the top left, and select find the right IP. If you have any problems sending, download the torrent here. <http://cdn.mediakey.dk/unstoppablemoviedownloadintamil/5ec8ef588b>
